8. Commitment

We ask that you observe the following:

Consistently communicate

With your staff, be accountable, submitted and open. We are here to serve you.

Be punctual

Let's do our best to honour one another. We ask you to be present in the schedule, with one another, and other events. Each volunteer agrees to consistently follow the timetable provided them, adhere to all activities and schedules, and complete any responsibilities asked of them.

Be responsible

If any volunteer breaks something in any of the charity properties, the volunteer will be responsible for the costs of replacing it. Any damage must be reported to staff. All house and base location norms and rules will be followed and upheld by all volunteers.

Have healthy relationships

Be wise and intentional in all your relationships with one another.

No smoking or vaping

There is no smoking or vaping permitted.

Observe the policy regarding alcohol

Follow the rules regarding alcohol (no more than two units on weekend nights: Saturday and Sunday) No alcohol is permitted during the week (Tuesday through Friday) unless there are special activities or circumstances.

Be committed to a lifestyle of holiness

Lying, use of illegal substances, use of legal substances banned by the charity, violence, stealing, sexually immoral acts, gossip, negative talk and an unwillingness to reconcile relationally with individuals who are students or staff will be taken very seriously. These are things that could lead to dismissal. If you have concerns about the behaviour of someone else, or need help yourself please talk with us.

We trust that you will follow these principles and recognise the wisdom behind them. If you don't understand one of them or if you have difficulties with them please discuss this with us.

Fees, charges refunds

All fees must be paid on time. There will be no refunds for the required fees that are paid.

Character and behavioural development

Youth with a Mission Radiant London believes that the development of Christian character is an integral part of our ministries and charity. Consequently, we expect that the conduct of volunteers will be in keeping with Biblical standards. Any verified moral violation (including but not limited to sexual immorality, lying, dishonesty, theft, substance abuse, physical abuse or sexual abuse) will be considered grounds for disciplinary action including probation and possible dismissal from a course or training programme and disqualification for reimbursement of fees. The same behavioural standards apply to all staff and students.

In the case of unacceptable behaviour we base our response on that expressed by Jesus in Matthew 18:15-17. The heart of this process is to bring the person into a place where they address their behaviour and remain in fellowship with the body. We are committed to working with volunteers to develop Christian character and behaviour. However, repeated breaches or more serious breaches (as outlined above) may result in the volunteer being dismissed from the base. In the case of overseas volunteers, dismissal from your course may affect your visa. There will be no refunds given in the case of dismissal or expulsion from the activity. Cost for changes to personal flights will not be covered by YWAM Radiant if a volunteer is dismissed. Unacceptable behaviour is determined by the course and/or base leader/core team.

As a volunteer with Youth with a Mission Radiant London, I hereby agree to uphold and abide by the base policies, Biblical values, and behavioural guidelines and standards of the charity:

I have completed this application and if accepted by Youth With A Mission, I will, under God, abide by the spirit, authority and schedule of the programme. I have read and understand the outreach fees and I commit to paying all costs associated with my involvement in the 'BONES' Carnival outreach (ARISE).
